

EMPHASIS:

- Articulation and space - planning for Residential spaces.
- Understanding basic residential requirements through design of spaces within a given context.
- Space making in an existing context allowing some freedom within the given architectural frame to achieve a harmonious whole of various activities.
- Basic Awareness of services in a residential space and also structural understanding.

DESIGN ISSUES:

- Understanding social context and evolving a programme of requirements.
- Understanding tangible in terms of space requirements and activities.
- Spatial organization
- Services, Movement Form. Function and furniture.
- Qualities of interior - texture, colour, light, scale and proportion.

SKILLS:

- Design Process - study of delineated area or context, its analysis and interrelationships.
- Volumetric Studies - Models, 3D Views, perspectives.

EXERCISES:

- Dwelling spaces ranging from 'POL' House/Wadas/Havelis in old city to present day houses in urban areas such as bungalows, tenements, apartments, penthouses etc.