

EMPHASIS:

- Understanding methodological approach to carry out a research based programme in order to
- Design an interior for a (large scale) project involving a set of complex issues

CONTENT:

- Nature and function of research, scientific research, meaning of research in the field of interior design, pure and Applied research
- Stages of research and design, design and research methodology
- Techniques of data collection
- Forms of research reporting, structure of a report
- Writing skills, presentation aids
- Use of primary and secondary references, bibliography, notation, cross references etc
- Nature of an undergraduate thesis, its structure and other requirements